

Tashlich

Thursday, October 3, 4:30PM

Tashlich or “casting away” is a traditional ceremony held on the first day of Rosh Hashanah during which individuals symbolically “cast away” their wrongdoings from the previous year by tossing breadcrumbs or stones into flowing water.

Tashlich will be held at Cool Creek Park in Carmel.

2000 E. 151st Street- Main Entrance

15228 Westfield Blvd.- North Entrance

The North Entrance will take you directly to the Parking Lots which are closest to the Shelters.

Please bring a picnic dinner and join us in Shelter B after the service!
Dessert will be provided.

